IN MEMORIAM

Judy Dellamonica and Joan-Marie Shelley signing the 1989 merger agreement that created UESF

Judy Dellamonica, who initially held the position of vice president at UESF, passed away last October.

Judy had been the long-time president of the San Francisco Classroom Teachers Association at the time of the merger with the San Francisco Federation of Teachers. She accepted the second position and served faithfully in creating the new entity of the United Educators of San Francisco.

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.

UESF BOOK GROUP

The UESF Book group selection for March 22 is The Black Count: Glory, Revolution, Betrayal, and the Real Count of Monte Cristo by Tom Reiss

We meet at Squat and Gobble, 1 West Portal, in the 2nd floor area on the 4th Friday of each month (except for November/December.) You may place your order downstairs and we will begin at 1pm.

For more information, contact Alexia Tindol at (415) 333-4045 or Anna Bolla at acbolla@sbcglobal.net

The group has met over many years, but new participants are very welcome!

WINNER OF THE PULITZER PRIZE FOR BIOGRAPHY

General Alex Dumas is a man almost unknown today, yet his story is strikingly familiar--because his son, the novelist Alexandre Dumas, used his larger-than-life feats as inspiration for such classics as The Count of Monte Cristo and The Three Musketeers.

But, hidden behind General Dumas's swashbuckling adventures was an even more incredible secret: he was the son of a black slave--who rose higher in the white world than any man of his race would before our own time. Born in Saint-Domingue (now Haiti), Alex Dumas made his way to Paris, where he rose to command armies at the height of the Revolution--until he met an implacable enemy he could not defeat.

CARA'S 2024 SENIOR VOTE PROGRAM BEGINS IN MARCH

SIGN UP TO BE A SENIOR AMBASSADOR

In order to make our Senior Vote Program a success, we must recruit at least 250 Senior Vote Ambassadors. Our goal is to talk with at least 5000 older voters in each of our 5 target Congressional districts. Each ambassador will be sent a list of 100 older voters in one of the districts who they will contact throughout the election season – by postcard, phone, text, email and invite to our Sept. Candidate Forum. We will begin our program in March (after the primaries).

We need you to sign up to be a Senior Vote Ambassador TODAY. Please click here to volunteer and ask your friends, colleagues, family to sign up too. We are almost halfway to our goal of 250 Senior Ambassadors.
